1,605 alumnae, whose names appear on the Honor Roll in this issue, can take pride in knowing they played a very real part in an impressive progress report the college made in August to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Their interest in the college and their contributions to the Alumnae Fund made it possible for Dean Edward Alvey to include the following paragraph in his Second Follow-Up Report to the Southern Association:

"Alumnae Support—A marked trend in the past two or three years is the increase in alumnae interest and financial support. Alumnae gifts between July 1, 1963 and June 1, 1964 totalled $11,629.22, representing contributions from 1,605 persons. This is 22.3 per cent of the persons solicited; last year the percentage was 19.1.

"The annual giving program has made possible the establishment and maintenance of a "Chancellor's Fund" of $5,000.00, to be used at his discretion for awards to graduates, alumnae, and faculty members for advanced study.

"The alumnae have also established an unrestricted Chancellor's Fund of $1,500.00 to be used for special purposes. Replacements are made by the Alumnae Association as needed to keep both funds at the level indicated."

The Self-Study undertaken by the college in 1961-62 is a continuing self-evaluation and periodic reports are made on the progress and trends at MWC. This second report, which supplements the First Follow-Up Report of 1963, tells of the progress made recently in a number of areas.

It traces the work of the Faculty Curriculum Committee on the proposal to discontinue home economics as a major—a proposal ratified by the UVa Board of Visitors in June. The same committee is now taking up the study of physical education as a major. This is in line with a 1962 recommendation of the Visiting Committee of the Southern Assn. that both home economics and physical education be re-studied to see how "they relate to the stated purposes of the institution."

Other points of progress mentioned in the report are as follows:

An increase in faculty salaries to a level above the national average in comparable colleges. Eight new faculty positions authorized in classics, chemistry, French, mathematics, political science, psychology, religion, and sociology. A student-faculty ratio of 13 to 1 and the teaching load limited to 12 semester hours.

In the past year 72 of the 135-member faculty held doctor's degrees, representing a 13% gain over five years ago.

The chemistry dept revised its course offering in accordance with recommendations of the Self-Study Report and the American Chemical Society. New equipment for advanced work has been added and the staff of six all hold PhDs in chemistry.

The history dept expanded its course offering on junior and senior levels. Four new courses have been added in art history and the dept of geography and geology has a course available to freshmen.

Special committees have been appointed to study the Freshmen and Senior years of MWC students from the point of view of courses offered, subjects actually taken, grades and credits earned, activities engaged in and other aspects of a student's first and last years at this college.

The steady increase in the academic qualifications of freshmen is evidenced by the large number of freshmen who graduated in the highest quartile of their HS classes—84%. The incoming freshman class of 550 was selected from over 2,300 applications.

There are non-credit dormitory seminars in three residence halls in addition to the programs in the French and Spanish houses. The 2-credit Liberal Arts Seminar now admits juniors as well as sophomores.

In the Junior Year Abroad program, there are at present nine students in France, four in Spain and one in Germany. Last session there were six in Spain, two in Austria and one each in France and England.

Awards won by '64 graduates are three Woodrow Wilson Fellowships, an NDEA Fellowship for work in Asian studies at Yale, and a Winterthur Fellowship for advanced study in art history at the Henry F. duPont Museum.

The college library collection now numbers over 150,000 volumes. The sections on geology, chemistry and art have been strengthened and substantial progress has been made in furnishing and collecting books for the rare book room.

In the fall of 1963 Chancellor Simpson was one of a committee of five college presidents who spent two months in India arranging a faculty exchange program between a small group of women's colleges in this country and in India. Dr. Alan S. Peirce, professor of Biology, is now in India as one of the first participants. MWC will have as an exchange teacher a member of the English dept of Woman's Christian College in Madras, India.

DRAMA FACULTY—STANDING: Dr. Albert Klein, Miss Katherine Moran, Mr. Albert Duke.
SEATED: Miss Shirley Cadle.

PLAYS INCLUDE INTERNATIONAL CLASSICS

This fall the curtain rises on another season for the MWC Department of Drama—a season named "A Festival of International Classics," in which the four productions to be presented will be of British, French, Chinese, and Greek origin.

Dr. Albert Klein, dept head, has announced the following program:

BRITISH—She Stoops to Conquer, by Oliver Goldsmith, an 18th century comedy; November 12, 13, 14.

FRENCH—Reynard the Fox, a children's play to be given in cooperation with Children's Concerts, Inc. on December 15, 16.

CHINESE—The Chalk Circle, a 14th century parable; March 11, 12, 13.

GREEK—The Trojan Women, by Euripides; May 6, 7, 8.

Dr. Klein, who has been at MWC 13 years, will be heading the dept for his second year. A graduate of Iowa U, he has a master's degree from UNC and a doctorate from U of Denver.

Others in the dept are Miss Shirley Cadle, who worked on her doctorate this past summer at U of Denver; Miss Katherine Moran, assistant dean of students, who teaches World Theatre and Dramatic Criticism; and Albert Duke, teacher of speech and a dramatics course.

It is the prerogative of the directors to choose the plays they wish to direct and at a pre-school meeting of the dept the year's program is planned. Selections of the dept are in a large part implemented by the MWC Players, an organization open to all students interested in dramatics regardless of their major. The dept is the producing agent and the student group is the organization from which personnel is drawn.

Dr. Klein pointed out that selecting plays to be given at girls' colleges present special problems. The chief difficulty is finding suitable female-oriented plays because of the dearth of male actors in the community.

Other factors to be considered are costumes and scenery. Plays requiring period costumes are generally limited to one or two a season because of the intricate process involved in getting the right costumes for the right people and having them complement the sets which are constructed at the college. The sets, as a rule, must be relatively mobile and not too elaborate, thereby narrowing the selection even more.

However, Dr. Klein explained, the primary criterion in the selection of a play is that it have dramatic value and be of significance both as entertainment and as a contribution to the arts. Effort is made to present a complete repertoire to the students during any given four-year program.

Students are given an opportunity to work in any or all phases of presenting a play to the public. Also, during the year as many as 20 one-act plays, directed completely by the students, are given in the classes.

An innovation last year was the experimental theater which gives students opportunity to work with some of the unconventional forms of the art. Also offered by the dept this year is a course for aspiring young playwrights.

DEAN TAKES STUDY TOUR

Dean Edward Alvey, Jr., has been invited to join a group of educators in November to make a three-week tour of six Communist countries in Europe for a field study of "Education Under Communism." He plans to observe closely the communist methods in counseling and guidance—a field that is his specialty.

The highly organized tour has been arranged by the Comparative Education Society and includes visits to all types of schools, from elementary to university levels in Poland, Russia, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia.

Tour members will fly from New York on November 4 for a series of three-day visits at the capitals of each of the six countries. At the end of the tour there is an optional one-day visit to East and West Berlin which Dr. Alvey plans to take before returning to the US on November 25.

At Moscow the educators will be dinner guests in teachers' apartments and will meet with the Trade Union of Teachers in a seminar as well as visit the Ministry of Education and a variety of schools. They will visit the Kremlin, the Pioneer Palace, the Bolshoi Ballet and museums and an art gallery.

At each of the stop-overs a committee of communist educators has planned the detailed itinerary. The elaborate schedule of visits is chiefly due to the efforts of Dr. Gerald H. Read, author, lecturer, and professor at Kent State University, and secretary-treasurer of the Comparative Education Society. He has been arranging such annual tours for six years, traveling a year in advance to arrange them with the Trade Union of Teachers.

In addition to his travels and his many duties at MWC, Dr. Alvey is serving as secretary-treasurer of the Southern Association's Conference of Academic Deans. Under normal procedures he is due to be elevated in two years to Chairman of the Conference of Deans, one of the highest ranking posts to be held by an MWC official.

DR. HILDRUP DIES

Dr. Robert Leroy Hildrup

Dr. Robert Leroy Hildrup, 57, chairman of the department of history and political science at Mary Washington died Wednesday, July 8, 1964. The cause of his death was an apparent heart attack.

A native of Spotsylvania County, Va., he received a bachelor of arts degree from Southwestern College, Winfield, Kan., and a master of arts and doctorate of philosophy from UVA.

Dr. Hildrup joined the MWC faculty in 1944. He previously served on the faculties of East Carolina College, Greenville, N. C.; The Citadel, Charleston S. C., and taught in Virginia public schools. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Barbara Woolard Hildrup (MWC '28); one son, Robert P. of Richmond; his mother, Mrs. Robert W. Hildrup of Spotsylvania County, and six brothers.

Dr. Robert F. Caverlee officiated at the funeral service. Interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery in Fredericksburg.

An editorial in the student newspaper, The Bullet, states ". . . The late Dr. Robert L. Hildrup . . . was able to transmit to his students a love for history as well as provoke in them some of his own thirst for knowledge. Dr. Hildrup was the type of person whose office door was continually open, welcoming students to talk with him about their academic or personal lives. His love and depth of understanding were both amazing and inspiring to all who came in contact with him. . . . Now it remains for us students to exemplify in our own lives some of the characteristics which meant so much to him."

Spotswood has a baby boy! Kitty Gilbert Eastridge, the office secretary and the person who keeps things running smoothly at Spotswood, had a baby boy on Sept 26. Just this once we are going to break our rule of not listing the names of babies. "Spotswood's baby" is named Glen Paul Eastridge, Jr. Much to our comfort and pleasure Glen Paul Sr. and Glen Paul Jr. permitted Kitty to return to her desk the latter part of October.

Carolyn Ann Hawker, president of the Class of 1964, was awarded the Thomas Jefferson Cup at Senior Convocation May 12. Jane Howard Patrick, past president of the Alumnae Assn, presented the cup, which each year is awarded to that member of the graduating class who, during her years at MWC, not only maintained a high scholastic average, but performed outstanding service to the College. Carolyn, an art major from Cheriton on the Eastern Shore, is now studying at the Art Students League in NYC. She has received a grant from the alumnae scholarship fund.

If more than 50% of our alumnae contribute to the Alumnae Fund a number of Matching Gift Companies will more than double their gifts.

A new method of interviewing prospective students, begun in Sept in the Admissions Office, has met with favorable reaction. Each Saturday two group interviews, with a maximum of ten persons in each, are held, one at 9:30 and the other 10:45. At these meetings, which are about 45 minutes long, prospective students are given opportunity to ask questions and discuss matters of general interest about the college.

The new method does not exclude individual conferences. Throughout the week private interviews will continue as usual and on Saturdays conferences on personal problems can be arranged apart from the group.

With the increase in the number of applications the number of requests for interviews has grown proportionately. Recently, for example, 57 people wanted interviews for the same Saturday. It is intended to keep the groups small and if the need arises more than two meetings will be scheduled for the weekends.

NEW FACULTY—Over half of the 23 new names added to the faculty list this fall were named to fill vacancies created by retirements, leaves of absence, and resignations. Some of the appointments are new positions on the 140-member faculty—positions in sociology, chemistry, math, classics, German, French, history, art, and physical education.

Dr. Caverlee, asst professor of Biblical literature at MWC since 1932, is pastor emeritus of the F'burg Baptist Church. Mr. Cecere, associate professor of art, came to the college in 1947. He is a prize-winning sculptor and the designer of MWC's Darden Medal.

ALUMNAE WIN AAUW AWARDS

Two of the 1964-65 AAUW Faculty Program awards have been made to MWC alumnae. Anne Lynch Edwards '49 will work at UNC for a MA and Byrd Stone Helguera '48 will study for an MS in library science at George Peabody.

Mrs. Edwards is a piano teacher, her husband is a pianist and they have two pre-school boys. Mrs. Helguera is married to an associate professor of history at Vanderbilt U. They have two school-age children.

Sixty-four southern women, whose average age is 40.9 years, are in college class rooms this fall preparing for college-level teaching or administrative posts. These AAUW grants will enable them to take graduate work leading to masters and doctor's degrees in the humanities, natural and social sciences.

More than half of the recipients are homemakers, while just over one-fourth are school teachers. All but three are mothers; nine with five children and one with eight, and nearly half have three or more children.

The AAUW Educational Foundation's College Faculty Program is designed to assist the mature college woman, long away from studies, to prepare for a professional career in higher education. CHAPTER EVENTS

Reporter, Gene Hurt Smallwood, '58, 2823 Franklin Road, S.W., Apt 6D, Roanoke, 24014.

The girls in NORTHERN VIRGINIA seemed to have had a thoroughly successful picnic on Aug 29 for the freshmen entering MWC this fall. According to president Peggy Payne Yarbrough '57 the 106 people attending had a wonderful time. They planned a "Dutch Maid" clothing party in Oct as a fund raising project. Their future plans for the year will be made this fall so we will be anxious to hear more.

The members of the ROANOKE VALLEY CHAPTER recently held their first social event since their organization and it is hoped that all functions will be as enjoyable as this one. Vice Pres Donna Henninger Henderson '61 organized a reception for the 13 new freshmen and their mothers, and everyone was so pleased when they all arrived. The entire group of upperclassmen, freshmen, and alumnae totalled about 55, making the work of the committee seem worthwhile indeed. Those who worked especially hard with Donna were Judy Bower '63, Foncie Lawrence Williamson '57, Adele Crowder Giles '37, and Mary Ellen Seaborn Gillian '41.

WHITE HOUSE FELLOWS

From the office of the White House Press Secretary: The President announced in October the establishment of the White House Fellows. . . . The Fellows will be named by the President on the recommendation of a Commission of White House Fellows headed by David Rockefeller.

The purpose of the program is to give the Fellows first-hand, high-level experience with the workings of the federal govt and to increase their sense of participation in natl affairs.

It is not a scholarly program; the Fellows will have completed their education and will be well into their careers. . . . Each will have demonstrated high moral character, exceptional ability, marked leadership qualities, and unusual promise of future development.

There will be 15 White House Fellows and they will serve 15 months. One assigned to the office of the Vice President; one to each Cabinet officer, and four to members of the White House staff. Each Fellow will go on leave from his present occupation, will receive a base salary of $7,500-$12,000 depending upon age, plus other increments for family responsibilities. The program is supported by a grant from the Carnegie Foundation.

All Fellows must be 23 to 35 years old; American citizens; and graduates of accredited four-year colleges. Women as well as men and local, state, and federal govt employees are eligible. The deadline for applications is Dec 15, 1964. Applications should be addressed to the Commission on White House Fellows, The White House, Washington, D. C.

HONOR ROLL of ANNUAL GIVERS 1963-64 Alumnae Fund

This Honor Roll is made up of the names of contributors to the 1963-64 Alumnae Fund. The names of those who have contributed since July 1, 1964, will appear next year on the 1964-65 Honor Roll. Although a number of alumnae sent more than one gift during the past fiscal year, space permits their names to be listed only once.

The names are arranged by classes. Percentages of class participation and dollar totals head each class list. These percentages are based upon the number of persons in a class who were solicited and the number in that class who contributed.

We hope you will notify the alumnae office if your name has been recorded incorrectly or omitted.

Dear Classmates: The 1964 Homecoming was great—ideal weather, good program and a cordial welcome.

Alice Warren Twiddy and Edna Gibbs Hunter came by for me on Friday. Elsie Wood Rice met us in F'burg. On Saturday Virginia Bolen, Margaret Sayre Ransone, Josephine Jerrell White, Elizabeth Russell Powers, Muriel Barber and Etienne Broadbudd Moore joined our group. Reminiscing and catching up on the news of those present and absent ones was the order of the day.

News: Beulah Detwiler Anderson is just home from a four month's vacation in New Mexico with her son. No rain there since the previous summer and dust storms were bad. Her son is being transferred to Naples, Italy. Next vacation for Beulah will be abroad.

Belmeir Linthicum Masters was planning to be out of town at Homecoming time. Lives in an apt with her son. Daughter lives near and Belle enjoys her grandchildren. Elizabeth Chenery Eley planned to go to Europe in August for two months; was to visit her daughter in Wilmington, NC before leaving.

While on a spring visit to Roanoke I found time to chat over the phone with Lillian Craig. At last her family history has been published after many years of research. It was a mammoth task and she has done a wonderful job. Her phonetic Readers have been well received and are in the second printing. She is doing some revision.

Lillian said Alva Birmingham is operating a private school and selling insurance. Manzie Torbert Kelly was not with us again this year as her husband has been in the hospital with eye trouble. She is looking forward to being at our "Fiftieth."

Mary Temple Coleman Theimer's husband had another siege in the hospital, another operation. She enjoys the news and likes to keep in touch. Muriel Barber retired Nov 30, 1963 from the Navy dept after 24 years of service. She now lives with her sister, Mrs. Mason H Willis, in F'burg.

I have a new grandson, born in Africa. I spent six weeks during July and August touring England, Holland, West Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. Had a great trip. Let's all plan for our 50th reunion next year.

Love,

RUTH

Dear Classmates: Greetings to all of you and thank you to those who found time to reply to my letter with some word of their activities.

Eleanor Haynie Porter was happy to know that the class was at last going to be reported in the News. She has been teaching in Lancaster Co since 1920, in Kilmarnock school until it was consolidated in 1956 to a HS, and then in the White Stone Elementary. She intended to retire this past June. She and Mr Robert H Porter were married in 1954.

Mildred Beane Duckett also teaches at the White Stone Elementary. Helen Robertson Eanes made a career of music and until her marriage in 1928 was supervisor of music in the Danville schools. For the next 21 years she directed all choirs at the First Baptist Church there. Her main interest now is in clubs. She has been president of the Music Study Club and the Shakespeare Study Club and is a member of the Women's Club. Her husband John is Sec'y-Treas of the First Federal Savings & Loan of Danville.

I regret to announce that Marguerite Uhrine died in Nov. 1960. Jessie Bouldin Paul appreciated being reminded of her happy days at MWC and she is looking forward to hearing news of her classmates. She lives in Roanoke where her husband John G is the district manager for Osborne-Kemper-Thomas Co, an advertising firm with headquarters in Cincinnati. They have one daughter who is married to Dr. T. David Elder of Duke U Hospital and there are two grandchildren, a girl 5 and a boy 3. The daughter is a graduate of Mary Baldwin and is attending her 10th class reunion this year.

After leaving college I was an elementary teacher at White Stone, F'burg, and Arlington. Upon receiving a civil service appointment in 1932 I moved to Washington where I lived until retirement. My husband Albert, who is also retired, and I now live in Chevy Chase. We share a common interest in painting and in a farm near Sparta where my mother, grand-father, and great-grand-father lived.

'27 Phronsie Marsh Sitwell, Three Otters, Route 2, Bedford

Elizabeth Hogg of West Point, Va, a beloved teacher there, died of cancer on February 4, 1951 at the age of 44. This information was sent in this spring by Cornelia B Hogg, who was so hurt by her sister's early death, that she didn't have the heart to send the information to the college at the time.

Miss Cornelia Hogg, of the class of '21, has the sympathy of the whole class of 1927.

'28 Georgia Overman Stewart, 120C Preston Drive, Manor Hgts., Port Deposit, Md.

Carmen Mejia Weiler wrote from Brazil that she was returning to the states in May to attend her son's graduation from Dartmouth. She was able to arrive early enough to attend Homecoming at MWC.

My thanks to Emeline Anderson Hall for being our class Fund Representative. Virgie Warner Thompson writes that she taught school in Arlington for 37 years and is now retired. Gertrude Brockley Smith sent news of her family and her civic activities. She has a married daughter, also a married son who is in the funeral business with his father.

Emeline Anderson Hall lost her husband in 1951. She was elected the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Northumberland Co in 1959 for a term of eight years. Annie Collins Snow sends word of her busy life in Smyrna, Del with her husband, two sons and grandchildren.

It was nice hearing from these members of our class and what a thrill it was to see those who came to Homecoming.

'30 Louise Garnett Goodwin, 405 Fauquier St., Fredericksburg 22401

Adele Pfalzgraf Copeland writes that since her husband's recuperation from polio in 1947 they have been living in Marietta, Ohio. Her husband is with Union Carbide Metals and she teaches upper elementary grades. A daughter lives in Columbus and a son attended Carnegie Tech.

Katherine Edmondson Hopper is doing a marvelous job in guidance in Fairfax. Helen P Davis Deitz writes, "It's true I started my college career an 'Even' but ended an 'Odd,' having graduated August '29. But perhaps that doesn't matter. Anyway, here is my check . . . hope the Fund swells tremendously."

Lilla Yancey Eley wrote, "I finished 32 years of teaching and last year decided to give it up in order that I may do many things I have always wanted to do. I'm planning to take many trips. I'm doing some substitute teaching. My husband's health doesn't permit me to take trips overseas but there are many things to see in US. I do not have any children, but I dearly love my school children."

Please let us hear from others of the Class of '30.

Lula Chiles Clarke and her husband celebrated their 35th anniversary last Feb. Their married daughter is wife of a U of Richmond professor and mother of three. A married son lives in Richmond, has two girls, and sells life insurance. Their third and youngest child is a junior at U of NC at Greensboro and is president of her class this year. Lula's husband has been inactive for 13 years due to a heart condition, but he enjoys life—and continues to have his insurance agency run by others. She said that she would be glad for any of her classmates to visit her at 1205 Winchester St when they are back in F'burg.

Frances Lightner lives at her old home in Falmouth and works for the Farmers and Merchants Bank in F'burg. Sally Winn Raines lives down at Loretto and has one child.

Please send me any news you may have about our classmates.

This was not a reunion year for us, girls, but time to be thinking of 1967—30 years! Our best wishes to the girls of '34 who observed their 30th this year. Remember? They helped guide many a step when we were freshmen.

Mary Ellen Craham Martin writes from Corpus Christi that she is excitingly making plans now for a '67 reunion. Has a son and daughter in college. Another promotion for Dorothy Chittum Delmar. Accepted the position with the State Board of Education as Eastern Area Supervisor of School Lunch Room Program, Richmond.

Her oldest son is in Argentina attending U of Buenos Aires as an exchange student from Cornell; youngest son will enter NYS U. at Delhi this fall.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mary Nell Woolfolk Lee whose husband Dr Ludwell F Lee died on August 1, 1964. The Lees live in Stafford Co. There are four children and one grandchild. Youngest child was a sophomore at MWC last year and is now in nursing school.

I hope all have contributed to the Alumnae Fund. If not, PLEASE mail a gift right away. No gift is too small. Do wish you'd send in some news. If in this area, come to see me.

'50 Dorothy Held Gawley, 177 McCosh
Rd., Upper Montclair, N.J. 07043

There is not too much news for this issue primarily because I haven't received letters. Can't make up a column without your help. I'll attribute it to the long, hot summer. Within the next months I will be sending out letters and questionnaires in preparation for Homecoming 1965, our 15th reunion. I hope you will help by sending them back promptly and by including any lost alumnae names that you may have.

Irv, Bill and I enjoyed our summer spending part of the time at Cape Cod and Canada. Also visited the World's Fair several times as probably many of you did.

Charlotte Leonard Wilder says that Connie and the twins are doing fine, as are the rest of her family. This year she will be 10th gr counselor at Springbrook HS in Silver Spring, Md. I hear that Garland Estes McCarthy is in Benghazi, Libya. Her husband is with Esso there.

Received a nice long letter from Barbara Huber Bohmann, Milano, Italy. Says they are all doing well and are beginning to make friends through the British American Club. They have bought a Fiat and have travelled to the Italian Riviera and also to Venice. Barbara has heard from Mary Jane McIntosh Young, who is now in East Aurora, NY.

Georgene Kirkendall McKernan has been in Malverne, NY almost two years and loves being "back East" after 11 years in Chicago. A traveling Navy wife, Nellie Grieve Swanson, is now in Yokahama, Japan. Her husband is attached to VU-5 at Otsugi. She says life looks interesting even though they have been there only a short while.

Jane Gardner Mallory is in Darien, Conn, a busy homemaker and mother of a son 6 and daughter 3. A son arrived at the home of Jean Sprower Hampton in early April. He joins a sister. I see that Jackie Newell Recker is a provisional member of the Englewood, NJ Jr League. She lives in Tenafly.

Another move! Betty Gavett Lampard is at Scott AFB since Clarke was transferred to MATS in April. Martha Carr Huddleston may not be teaching dance this year, but she has gone back to college, taking three courses.

Thanks so much to all of you who have contributed to the Annual Giving Program. Hope our percentage has gone up this year and may more of you join the list! That about does it for now. Please let me hear from you soon.

'56 Hermine Gross Fox Box 3401, Stanford, Calif. 94305

Ozzie and I are glad to know you enjoyed the News and we appreciate your notes of thanks. Our thanks to each of you for your continued support over the YEARS. Please, please, keep us abreast of your whereabouts and activities. The News is now sent to every alumna for whom the Association has a correct address. Many of you have just begun to get it because Ozzie and I have received word of you, directly or indirectly, and have sent your new address to the alumnae office. We continually try to cut down our "lost" list of 56ers. Help us keep in touch.

She and John were married in 62. They operate stables in Northville with show and race horses. Peg mentioned what fun it would be to get the Combo together again. Maybe at our 10th reunion. Yeah!

Will those who have not replied to the postcards I sent the first of this year please send me news soon? We have not heard from many of you since 56 and would surely like to hear from you or see you in 1966.

Some of you expressed interest in an address list of our classmates. The Association is not able to provide this service. I, too, cannot afford the expense of such a project. However, if you care to contribute to the expense, I would consider preparing and mailing such a list to you. Send me a postcard stating your support and I shall check costs and report on the possibilities.

I was in Richmond last Feb for Rose Bennett Gilbert's wedding and it was like a class reunion. Lynn Word Hurt, Betty Williams, Edna Weiss Clemens (matron of honor), and the families of Edna, Joyce Neill Krost and Anne Hutcheson Arthur were there. It was a beautiful wedding.

Saw Shelby Davis Burton while I was in Richmond. I was happy to note that most of us haven't changed a bit, so I returned to NY feeling not so ancient.

Joyce Krost's delightful parents told me Joyce is giving painting and sculpture lessons at her home. She is applying the talent that won her an MWC art award. Her father is quite an artist himself.

Rose is now in Arlington. She works with a group in a converted studio barn and she plans to study art history at GWU. (Ed. note: As we went to press we learned that Rose Bennett Gilbert is now assistant editor of "Museum News," the journal of the American Assn of Museums; office at 2306 Massachusetts Ave. N.W., DC.)

Edna and George are in Bloomington, Ind. where George is a research associate and Edna is working on her doctorate language requirements.

Katherine Roberts Kendrick, 251 W. Poplar St., Charleston, S. C. has a boy and girl. She would like to hear from Betty Raines Grimes. Sally Brown Stellfox is in NJ and expected a baby in Oct. Also in NJ are Becky Lonas Allen and Tom, who is with an advertising firm.

Ray and I and our two children are in Bronxville now while Ray is finishing his doctorate work at NYU. I'm a substitute teacher and taking an art class.

My regular correspondents are great sources of information but I would like to have news from some of you who never send in items. Please share your news so we have more variety in our column.
